

Bulletin / Electronic Press release for Ken Lowry

Ken Lowry, Associate Director with Churches of Christ Disaster Relief Effort, Inc. based in Nashville, TN will be speaking to us about CCDRE's purpose, along with how they prepare, and stay ready to send basic needs and much more to those devastated by major disasters in the US by working through a local church of Christ near the disaster area. Come hear about a truly good work to help others, going on in the church today.

Ken previously has lived in Michigan, Florida, and Tennessee. His family is from Paris, Tennessee. He attended Freed-Hardeman College and is a graduate of Murray State University in Kentucky. Ken spent almost 30 years in the pharmaceutical industry before focusing his efforts in 2010 to work with Churches of Christ Disaster Relief Effort. He traveled throughout the Southeast speaking to congregations about this work for several years as a volunteer, before becoming an employee. His wife Jennifer is from North Carolina, but she also has lived in Nashville, where she graduated from David Lipscomb College.

Ken and Jennifer live in North Carolina, and together they travel extensively across the southeast region to increase awareness about the mission of CCDRE to secure financial support, and also to coordinate congregations helping their community after major disasters takes place.

To read more about the work of CCDRE, go to:
disasterrelieffort.org or facebook.com/disasterrelieffort

